Data Dictionary

Sofia Silvosa

year: Year the film was released (1970-2013)

imdb: Imdb ID

title: Movie Title

cleantest: Score dictating whether the given film passed the Bechdel test ('ok') or if it failed it or how it failed it (notalk, nowomen or men) or if the test results were inclusive (dubious).

test: Unedited version of clean test– includes the same levels with including a '-disagree- string if the result of the test was debated on such as "notalk-disagree."

budget: amount of money that ncludes all costs relating to the development, production, and post-production of the film (not accouting for inflation) domgross :total box office revenue earned by a movie in the U.S (not accounting for inflation)

intgross:total box office revenue earned by a movie in countries outside of its country of origin or primary release (not accounting for inflation)

code: variable that combines the year and binary variable (ex: 1970- FAIL) binary: binary variable illustrating whether the given film passed (PASS) or failed (FAIL) the Bechdel Test budget_Gross2013: amount of money that ncludes all costs relating to the development, production, and post-production of the film (converted to 2013 dollars) dom_Gross2013 :total box office revenue earned by a movie in the U.S (converted to 2013 dollars)

int_Gross2013 :total box office revenue earned by a movie in countries outside of its country of origin or primary release (converted to 2013 dollars)

periodcode : dictates different periodic periods of film in regards to the FiveThirtyEight's teams knowledge of the film industry on a categorical, multinomial scale of 1,2,3,4 and 5– not much more detailed was revealed by the authors regarding the criteria for the periods.

decadecode : decade in which the film was released: - 1: 1970-1979 - 2: 1980- 1989 - 3: 1990-1999 - 4: 2000- 2009 - 5: 2010- 2013